The ground upon which the Memorialist has applied for the intercession of God is that he did not murder Chandi but that one Gunja did so. The facts proved, as found by the Court show that Chandi was in the custody of Memorialist for all day and the latter suspected that the former had intimacy with a low caste girl with Gunja stabbed Chandi to death. Under these circumstances it does not appear that Memorialist might have been some provocation caused to act by the conduct of Chandi. The case was fully inquired into by the Sessions Judge in which accused Memorialist pleaded guilty to culpable homicide not amounting to murder. This does not appear to be a fit case for the exercise of the prerogative of the Sovereign. I would therefore humbly advise His Highness to reject this Memorial

This was a culpable murder - Three years rigorous imprisonment is more than enough to intimidate - 24.5.96. Asst. Resident

I agree with Mr. Justice Gibbons. The Memorial should be rejected and Commutation advised on the Anniversary of Her Majesty's Accession.

Memorial of Mada, undergoing Sentence of transportation for life in the Central Jail at Bangalore.

"I did not commit the offence. There was no sort of ill-feeling between me and my wife. One Ganga, owing to grid, murdered my wife, and threw the blame on me. The Police promised to get me released, if I admitted the commission of the offence. Therefore I admitted the commission of the offence. I appealed to the Chief Court. The Sentence passed by the Lower Court was confirmed. This is unjust. Therefore I pray that the benign Sirkar will peruse the records and order my release."
